Girl Scout Troop/Group Leader	Welcome to a world that invites girls to challenge themselves, discover who they are and what they truly can become! While the girls are on their journey, YOU, the Girl Scout troop leader can: develop your potential, learn new job skills, put your special talents to use, and most of all... be a positive influence in the lives of girls. A troop leader guides girls through programs that include science and technology, business and economic literacy, visual arts, and outdoor and environmental awareness. She/he assists girls in discovering themselves, connecting with others and taking action to make the world a better place. Hold 1 - 1½ hour troop meetings either weekly or every other week. Prep time is required to plan/organize troop meetings and related Girl Scout activities. Work with the grade level of choice, Kindergarten – 12th. Meeting place, time and day (weekday, evening or weekend) is determined in coordination with the leader's personal schedule. Basic training classes are provided and monthly meetings for leaders are held in your local area. Contact Cate Teague, Membership, 713-292-0213, cteague@sigs.org .

Goodykoontz Museum of Girl Scout History Docent

Docents are trained by the informed Council History Committee members to enable them to answer questions, assist visitors, talk about the availability of resources (like the new History Committee Discovery Boxes) – and hand out the Self-Guided Tour information developed by the Committee. Since girls and adults visit us every day, we need docents when the Council Girl Scout Shop is open— Monday – Friday, 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. – 1 p.m., specific tour times on Saturday. Contact Dolores Zamora Richards, Program, Council Volunteer Coordinator, deelola@yahoo.com or Melinda Gaskill, Program, 713-292-0232, mgaskill@sigs.org.

Mariners Sailing
Program Big Boat
Captains

Certified adults take troops out on day sails, captain the boats when participating in the Kemah Christmas Boat Parade, instruct girls on being crew members and other advanced ratings according to program outlines. We have classes available for those that qualify. If you love sailing the big boats or you are ready to take the next step up, this is the place for you. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Cooks

Adult males and females are needed to plan, purchase and prepare the meals that are provided for the girls while staying in camp. To become a certified cook you must attend a council cook training. This is a great job for those early risers and for those who love to take naps or relax in the afternoon. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Cook Helpers

Adult males and females are needed to help provide meals for the girls while staying in camp. Cook Helpers prepare and serve the food. No training required. This is a great job for the early risers and for those that love to take naps or relax in the afternoon. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Dorm Mom

Adult females are needed to chaperon the girls while in the dorms; supervise kapers (chores), monitor the radio on the dock and assist where needed during the weekend. Requires a short training the Friday night you come to camp. This is the easiest of all our volunteer jobs. When we are sailing there is time to finish that book you have been reading while sitting on our porch swings. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Event Leaders

Adult males and females are needed to plan and/or carryout planned activities for the various weekends and handle check-in and check-out of girls at camp. You will monitor the base radio while the girls are sailing. Training is set up as a mentor program. This is a great job for those who love sitting in a porch swing watching the sailboats. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Functional
Area Coordinators

Adult males and females are needed to coordinate programs, publicity and recognitions and work on special projects. Training will depend upon the interest area, some which none is involved. We will use the qualities you already possess. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Motorboat Operators

Adult males and females are needed to operate motorboats. Safety boats are always on the water when girls are sailing. Certified adults operate these boats. The training consists of one Friday night, the next day on the water and 3 apprenticeships. You must also have the Texas Boaters Certification available from Texas Parks and Wildlife online. This is a great job for those that love relaxing on the boat watching the sails. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Mariners Sailing
Program Sailing Instructors

Adult males and females are needed to teach both basic sailing and advanced ratings courses. Training is dependent on your knowledge of sailing and completion of the Instructors Class. You must also have the Texas Boaters Certification available from Texas Parks and Wildlife online. This opportunity is great for those that want to share their love of sailing. Contact Sailing Coordinator Donna Bilger, Program, 281-399-1683, sailing.coordinator@gmail.com.

Office Volunteer - Development

Perform light office clerical duties such as updating and chronicling donor information, filing, implementing mailings, and stuffing envelopes. Requires availability during business day, for at least two hours per week. Contact Michele Rathers, Development, 713-292-0282, mrathers@sigs.org.

Press Corps Representative

The Press Corps helps spread the word about Girl Scouting to neighborhoods and communities throughout our 26 counties. The role of a Press Corp representative is to gather news and photos from their service unit and submit the information to local newspapers and Council publications.
